

"The typical chiropractor talks about 'maintenance.'
I talk about 'management' with my patients." – Dr. Pamela Wilson

Education:

- Doctor of Chiropractic, Logan College of Chiropractic
- Post-graduate study in Rehabilitation and Physical Medicine, The Charles University Hospital, Prague
- BS in Health and Physical Education, West Chester State College

Certifications:

- Certified in Rehabilitation, Los Angeles College of Chiropractic Post-Graduate Division
- Board Certification in Rehabilitation, Levels I, II, and III
- Certified provider for Active Release Techniques
- Licensed in New Jersey and New York

Professional Memberships:

- International Society of Clinical Rehabilitation Specialists, by invitation and practical testing
- American College of Sports Medicine
- American Chiropractic Association Rehabilitation Council
- Physical Medicine Research Foundation
- National Strength and Conditioning Association

Professional Highlights:

- Founder, Wilson Center, Red Bank, NJ
- Co-author, chapter on functional training of the youth, recreational and professional/elite cyclist, in Rehabilitation of the Spine, A Practitioner's Manual, 3rd edition, to be published by Williams and Wilkins 2011
- Physical medicine practitioner for Matthew Long, special needs athlete, Ironman USA triathlete and I WILL Foundation founder
- Personal chiropractor for Freddy Meyer of the New York Islanders
- Trainer and Chiropractic Physician for Olympic medalists Maya Usova and Evgeny Platov. As ice dancers, Usova won bronze and silver medals and Platov is a two-time gold medalist. As skating partners, the duo won the 1999 World Professional Championship
- Inducted into student Athletic Hall of Fame, Rumson-Fair Haven Regional High School